HAVOC COMPLETE.

The havoc wrought by the tornade is complete. In a town of 1000 people, not more than a score of houses are intact, while two-thirds of the buildings are totally wrecked. The storm formed south of Olustoe, near the Texas line, and took a north-casterly course, through a well-settled section. At 8 o'clock, it was observed by the people of Snyder, but the usual funnel-shaped formation was tacking, and though the roar was plainly heard unnel-shaped formation was lacking, and though the roar was plainly heard or some time before the storm broke, nany were of the opinion that it was halleful.

Within a few minutes the sky became suddenly dark and a terrific downpour of rain began, lasting for several minutes, when it stopped almost as suddenly as it had commenced. A few moments of ominous calm followed, and then the tornado struck, testing buildings to pieces as though they were made of Daper. Many people who had thought to take advantage of the caim to take refuge in the cellar were caught in the streets and between buildings, where mine were lifted in the air and dashed to the ground as though huried from a catapult, while others were struck by flying debris and crushed almost beyond recognition. Those who remained in their houses, except in a few blocks in the southeastern corner of the town, fared no better. The frame structures collapsed like egg-shells, burrying occupants under the ling of its purpose was obtainable.

It was reported tonight, on apparently reliable authority, that the complaint in the action to oust Alexander from the trusteeship of the Hyde stock would be served within the week and that sworn affidavits would be included stating that no Equitable money went either directly or indi-rectly toward paying for the now fanous Hyde ball, that there was no unseemly action on the part of any person at that ball and that false reports about these things were spread as part of the alleged conspiracy to injure Hyde in the eyes of the public and of the directors of the society

MONTANA'S MEDAL CANDIDATE. HELENA (Mont.) May 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Ida Mellon is the heroine of Rimini, a mining camp of 200 souls, about fifteen miles from of 200 souls, about fifteen sailes from Helena, as her coolness prevented the destruction of the plac eby fire. While school was in session, smoke was seen issuing from the celling. As the town is constructed of wooden buildings, the place would have been doomed had not Miss Mellon got the children out, thanks to fire drills, and then organized them into a bucket brigade. She soon had water pouring upon the flames. A movement is on foot to secure for her a Carnegie medal.

NEWSPAPER MAN'S STORY.

"The first intimation I had of the wreck," said John B. Reynolds of Pittaburgh, a newspaper man, who was going home from New York and escaped with alight injuries, "was when I heard an awful crash, and was thrown outi nto the alse of the car. I was dazed for a slittle time, and only realized my position and what had happened when J felt a woman grabbing me and screaming "For God's sake, help me!"

"I pushed her out of the window, and a fellow passenger handed out a child, which belonged to her. He then left the train, and called me to jump through the window. Just then there was a terrific explosion. As I dropped to the ground, a missile struck and knocked me down. I don't know how long I lay there, but when I recovered cries of the dying were heartrending An alarm of fire was sent in, but when the firemen reached the scene the flames had done thier work. The physicians from the city. As quickly as the injured were temporarily relieved of pain, they were placed on special trains and trolley cars and hurried to the hospital here. Several hundred ratiroad laborers were on the spot within an hour, and by daybreak their number had been long I lay there, but when I recovered my senses I crawled across the tracks under a freight train and rolled down the embankment on the other side. I increased to a thousand. It was a grewsome task for the railroad men. Not one whole body was found in the wreck. Either an arm or a leg or all four limbs were burned off the trunk otner clothing and belongings were lost.

"I never want to witness such a sight as that which followed the collision. Women were screaming, children were crying, and strong men were wandering about dazed and helpless. The tracks were strewn in, all directions with half-naked men and women, some of whom were dead and others seriously injured.

On this same train was Samuel Shubert, the well-known theatrical man, and Abe Thaihelmer, one of Shubert's agents. They were accompanied by Samuel Kline, a New York lawyer, and were on their way to Pittsburgh to close a deal for the lease of a theater. Shubert was slightly injured, and was taken to the hotel with scarcely any clothing.

Thaihelmer was cut about the face and head. The mill bands working near the scene of the accident were quick to respond to the cries of the injured, and carried some of them to their homes in that locality and fitted some of them out with shoes and clothing. if the explosion had not occurred, there would have been no loss of life. Coroner Krouse empaneled a jury which viewed the bodies this aftertomorrow. of this city, starting fire that destroyed three houses.

The lifelets body of Engineer Thomas, with the head almost severed, was found lying over an embankment.

Albert J. Barr of the Pittsburgh Post arrived this afternoon from Philadelphia. Mrs. Barr and her daughter will remain in Harrisburg until tomorrow night. Mr. and Mrs. Tindell will stay at the Executive Mansion until this evening, when they will resume their journey to Pittsburgh. Aside from cuts on her feet, caused by walking on the railroad tracks and injuries from flying glass, Mrs. Tindell was uninjured.

Mr. and Mrs. Tindell were on their way to Pittsburgh from New York. After the crash, they hurriedly left the car in which they were sleeping and walked along the railroad tracks to the home of McNaughton at Steelton. Tindell telephoned to Gov. Penny-packer their condition, and the Governor immediately sent for Private Secretary Wharton and directed that he take care of them. Wharton took a cab to Steelton, and brought the Tindells to the executive mansion, where they were cared for by a physician. Henry Silverman, a New York jewelry salesman, had a satchel in his berth which contained $17,000 worth of jewelry. In order to escape being burned to death he was compelled to leave the satchel in the coach, which was destroyed by fire.

Among these who received slight injuries was Miss Brown, daughter of Congressman Brown of Pittsburgh, and her companion, Miss Woodworth of Philadelphia. They escaped through a car window. Rev. T. N. Acheson of the most horrible disasters ever experienced by the Pennsylvania railroad on its main line.

Passengers and trainmen were burned to a crisp, while others were pinned helplessly in the debris. So completely incinerated were the bodies that only four could be identified up to fit o'clock.

The women in the wreck suffered greatly, and many of those who escaped were found almost naked. Among those who got out without injury were Mrs. Albert J. Barr, wife of the proprietor of the Pittsburgh Post,

PRIMARY CAUSE OF WRECK.
The primary cause of the wreck was a shifting engine. It was going west slowly, when the engineer of the east-bound freight train saw it coming on his track. He applied the brakes suddenly, which caused the middle of the train to buckle, shoving several of the cars onto the westbound passenger track. A moment later, the express, one of the fastest night trains on the, road, came along and dashed into the wrecked cars. The next instant, the boiler of the passenger locomotive exploded.

train to buckle, shoving several of the cars onto the westbound passenger track. A moment later, the express one of the fastest night trains on the road, came along and dashed into the wrecked cars. The next instant, the boiler of the passenger locomotive exploded. The wreck took fire, and those who escaped began the work of rescue. Six minutes after the express struck the freight wreck, the railroad men say the flames reached the car-filled with powder. There was a flash and a deafering roar. The earth trembled as though some terrible seismic disturbance had occurred. All who were not killed and injured by the explosion fled from the awful scene.

The entire wreckage became a mass of flames, and small boxes of powder that had not exploded, "let go" continued, men who had bravely gone that had not exploded, "let go" continued men who had bravely gone to the rescue before the first explosion did not dare to approach the burning werekage, though they could hear the agonized shrieks of the dying.

BURNING HELPLESS BEINGS.
Flames began their cruel work of burning human bodies that were helplessly pinned in the wreckage. An alarm of fire was turned in, and when the firemen arrived, it was impossible for them to go closer than three hunder dred yards to the fire until, the explosions had ceased. Then the intense heat interfered with the work of rescue. Men of the noblest nerve were

REDUCED THE PER CAPITA.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

MARYSVILLE, May 11.—The encampment of the G.A.R. has reduced the per capita tax from 13 to 12 cents per quarter. A fight is now on for delegate to the national encampment, to be held in Denver next September. The greatest contest, however, lies in the contest for department commander. Russell of Marysville leads, but Cutler of San Francisco and Campbell of Stockton are working hard. A resolution has been adopted, asking that veterians employed under civil-service regulations may retire at the age of sixty-five on half salary, and must be retired at seventy on half salary.

Special trains today brought large numbers of veterans from surrounding towns. Gov. Pardee and Commanderin-Chief Wilmon W. Blackmar and party arrived in time to take part in the parade and review.

The resolution favoring the candidacy of Corporal Tanner of New York for mational commander—in-chief was withdrawn, upon the announcement by Gen. George Stone, chairman of the Republican State Committee, that he wants the position. The department unanimously favors his candidacy.

Count Czaykowski, Edith L. Collins's Ex-husband, Arrested for False Pretenses to Paris Bankers. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

PARIS, May II.—Count Czaykowski, from whom his wife, who was Miss Edith L. Collins of New York, secured a decre eof separation last November, was recently arrested, charged with ob-a decre cor separation hast November, was recently arrested, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses from Patusset & Losier, bankers, of this city.

The bankers allege that the Count secured an advance from them in order that he might proceed to the United States and claim $20,000,000 which, he said, he had inherited from a Boston relative named Clarke.

Patusset & Losier claimed that they received in payment a check for $4000 drawn on an American banking concern, from a Boston solicitor, but that when it was presented payment was found to have been stopped.

When urged to repay them, they allege, Count Czaykowski proposed that Patusset accompany him to America as adviser, promising him a substantial recompense. Patusset agreed to do this, the bankers aver, but as the count demanded a further advance and delayed his departure, the charge against him was brought.

PAPERS PRAISE THE PRESIDENT

Rebuke to Chicago Strikers is Heartily Commended.

Discouragement Spreading in Ranks of Unionists.

Rain Also Takes Viciousness Out of the Rioters.

INT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, May 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The New York daily press, ithout exception, Democratic and Re-ublican alike, heartily commend the resident for his courageous and degreed rebuke of labor-union blather-dies who waited upon him in Chicago.

The World (Democratic) says: "President Roosevelt's talk to the strikers in Chicago was in his very best vein. He expressed his complete sympathy with the principles and aims of labor unions, but said squarely that 'in upholding law and order, in doing what he is able to do to suppress mob violence in any shape or way. Mayor Dunne has my hearty support."

COULDN'T MISTAKE IT.

COULDN'T MISTAKE IT.

MORAL INDIGNATION. President's words have the strength of moral indignation, more impressive because unpremeditated. The President remembered that no law-abiding citizen is irritated by the sight of a policeman in uniform, of a company of militia or of a whole battation of regulars. To men who are intent on their own business, who are not meddling with others, guardians of our peace are no more of a menace than so many hitching posts. In fine, labor, union hostility to the militia and to the army—so often expressed—is at the bottom an assertion of the right to murder the man who, in his notions as to hours and wages, disagrees with the union; it is rebellion against the fundamental law of the land."

TURN OF THE TIDE.

The Eagle (Democratic) says: "We believe this (Rooseveit's) statement indicates the turn of the tide. The unions have defied the law, order, and the public as long as it is safe for them to do so. The President in his warning merely voices the sentiment of the American people. He has cautioned the minority against further infringements on the rights of the majority, and he thus upholds all for which the majority has been forced to contend."

CHICAGO, May 11.—The teamsters' strike today was practically without Indicat. Driving storms of wind and rain which swept the streets at frequent intervals had the effect of driving the majority of the pickets from their posts. On the cotskirts there were a few attacks upon the drivers of delivery wagons, but with the exception of one colored man, who was knocked senseless by a stone, nobody was injured.

The most important part of the strike developments were the examination of witnesses this afternoon before Master in Chancery Sherman, who is taking teefimony relative to the alleged violation of the Federal injunctions granted for the Employers' Association and for the seven express companies. Adolph Pheil, for eleven years an employé of the United States Express Company, but now a striker, refused to answer questions, on the ground that he might incriminate himself.

John Bernard, a union teamster, was

"strike" firms. The excuse on which this action is being taken is that humanity demands it. It is declared by others, however, that this is merely a subterfuge to cover the real attitude of the drivers—that they do not favor the strike and are anxious to go on with their work.

POLICE TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Police protection was ordered sent to-day to the Hendricks Public School, West Forty-third street and Shields avenue, in consequence of a "strike" of 760 pupils, who refused to go to school because non-union drivers for the Pea-body Coal Company had taken coal to the building.

The committee waited on the city's chief executive with a request that an order permitting policemen to ride on the wagons of the firms against which the teamsters are on strike be countermanded, on the ground that the police were being used in a manner to discriminate against the strikers. The Mayor told the committee that he had issued the order enabling the police to ride on the wagons; that he would be personally reaponsible for the effect of that order; and, in this many words, said that he did not consider that the police were exceeding their rights or powers at all. He held that, under normal conditions, the wagons would be moved at a pace that would preclude the possibility of the police keeping up with them on foot. He also declared everything in the situation warranted the police riding on the wagons.

IBY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES! NEW YORK, May 11 -- [Exclusive Dispatch.] John D. Rockefeller has decided to follow up the recent donation of $100,000 to the Congregational missionary fund with additional contributions in aid of church and philanthropic work.

"I shall continue to give, in my own way, to any cause that appeals to me as being worthy or in need," Rockefeller said.

"Do you think the sentiments expressed by Dr. Gladden are held by any large number of clergymen?"

"I should be loath to feel that such was the case. I have a great many friends in the Christian ministry, and my experience with clergymen generally leads me to entertain only the warmest respect for them, as just and and there was little or no interference with deliveries.

The strikers have protested to mayor Dunne against policemen riding on wagons with the drivers, claiming that the police were being used as strike-breakers, not as preservers of the peace.

A squad of police had to be sent to a school where several hundred children struck because a coal firm under the ban was delivering coal to the school, about half of the boys and riswere induced to resume their studies, but the others went home.

A break in the ranks of the strikers today is alleged to have occurred in a refusal of the hay and feed drivers to observe the boycott. Deliveries zee being made by their union to all the W ISHINGTON.

bart, thirty-two miles north of Snyder, reached the stricken town just before daylight. Everyone on board began at once the work of relief. On every hand they found the streets almost obliterated by niles of demolished houses. In all directions, evidence of the terrible havoc of the storm was apparent. The dead and dying lay about the streets, in yards and mixed up with the wreckage, while those who had escaped ran hither and hither in excited attempts to bring chaos out of the terrible scene, and to render what meager ald they might. The storm was not confined to Snyder. On the way to the boom town, dead and injured were passed in plain sight of the relief trains, but these were passed by in the efforts of the rencuers to reach Snyder, where there was greater need of their services.

The first man to reach Snyder and return to a telegraph point was the station agent at Mountain Park, a neighboring town. He had walked into Snyder, reaching there at daylight, and after taking a hasty view of the situation, and without gathering any exact details of the storm's effects, returned to Mountain Park. This man resported the town partially destroyed, and asserted that the list of dead would reach somewhere between three and four hundred. The injured, he said, were to be seen everywhere, and their number undoubtedly will reach into the hundreds.

While the tornado seems to have been widespread, rumors that other towns in Southwestern Oklahoma-had been destroyed were declared by telephone exchanges to be incorrect. However, there was no question that much damage to property and loss of life had occurred in the outlying districts. The same tornade struck Quinlan, in Woodward county, on the Santa Fe Rallway, destroying sev-

It is believed that a large number of the injured will die. In a number of cases entire families were killed, and in almist every ramily in the town some member was injured.

Every house in the town except six is said to have been either badly wrecked or demolished, many of them were blown away. The havoc wrought is most complete. The business portion is reported entirely destroyed. Ten undertakers, who were attending the funeral directors' convention at Oklashoma City, left that place at 9 o'clock this morning with a carload of caskets for Snyder. few had any warning of their danger.

There was no possibility of securing a correct early estimate of the number of dead and injured. The number of dead were placed at anywhere between seventy and three hundred, while the injured were placed at between 100 and 500.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning, indifferent telephone connection was established with Lawton. Lawton reported that the telephone wires between there and Snyder had worked at brief intervals, and that from snatches of conversations received, the dead at Snyder were placed at between seventy and one hundred, with the injured at between sixty and two hundred. Lawton, however, stated that so much confusion existed at Synder that it was impossible at that hour to give anything like a correct estimate of the casualites.

of the provisional committee of the December congress being reëlected to this bureau.

Beside the resolutions concerning the nature and form of the assembly, the congress declared that it was impossible for members of the zemstvos or doumas to participate in the work of the district commissions created to arrange for the reimbursement of losses caused by peasant disorders since the organization of these commissions, as the secret mode of investigation is founded upon complete renunclation of ordinary legal procedure.

The congress further opposed participation by zemstvoists in the multitudinous government commissions, claiming that the effect of these is to retard, instead of hasten, the work of reform. It favors participation in the Bouligan Commission only on condition that the popular representatives are given an equal right with the representatives. given an equal right with the repre

UNIVERSITY BUDGET.

BERKELEY, May 11.—The Board of Regents of the University of California oday made public the budget which was adopted at the annual meeting Regents of the University of california today made public the budget which was adopted at the annual meeting held last Tuesday.

The most noteworthy fact about the apportionment of the University's funds is the refusal of the regents to grant any raises of salaries.

The budget adopted by the regents also contains the final disposition of the cases of three veteran professors, who have been supposed to be ready for the emeritus list. Prof. George Davidson, head of the Department of Geography, will retire from full service, becoming emeritus professor of grography, on partial pay. Prof. E. W. Hilgard, head of the College of Agricultural Experiment Station, will take a year's leave of absence, with full salary; and Prof. George H. Howison, head of the philosophy department, continues at the same post, with a salary of $4500, which amount is furnished through the Mills Endowment.

of the diplomatic corps, generally, it is regarded as a humiliative rebule. His friends stoutly maintain that the transfer is a promotion, and that it will lead to higher honors.

It is understood that the Czar is displeased because public sentiment in the United States turned against Russia in the present war. Count Cassini, who was dean of the diplomatic corps, is personally popular, but he was unable to stem the tide of sympathy that ran among the Americans for the Japanese. It has been suspected for some weeks that a change might be made, but Cassini's associates were hardly prepared for the surprising news of yesterday.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 11 - Tree earthquake of Monday tight which decided to invite the responsible repetuted over a wide area of country in Chestral Moxico and Southern Mexico. In the State of Jalisco many houses were demaged and the done of the church in one town collapsed. The shock was severe also in Chilpancingo, capital of the State of Guterro, which a few years ago was nearly destroyed by an earthquake of exceptional violence. The shock was notable at Colima, where a vertical movement was felt, accompanied by subterransen roarings. The earthquake was felt to the borders of Gustemala.

When the local Board of Directors learned of the phenomenal success that had attended the administration of Daniel E. Having done this, Mr. Luther was impressed with the prospects in so fertile a field with 1200 members to start with, and consented to come, but first he must go home an dmake peace with his employers at Atlanta.

The avowed purpose of this show is that persons interested in the cultivation of flowers, fruits, fpliage plants, vines, shrubs and trees, may have an opportunity to learn of those best suited to this part of California and be enabled to study them under good conditions.

enabled to study them under good conditions.

It is pointed out that the rapid growth of the city is necessarily bringing to us many people who are entirely at sea concerning what to plant and how to care for it after it is planted, and the flower show may save them beth evenues and disappointment.

Near the mouth of the arroyo, where it flows into the Los Angeles River, the river bottom is controlled by stony-hearted corporations manufacturing cement and macadam. Farther up the bed has been leased by sundry companies who will let no one go on their leaseholds, and who control the market.

up at High School in State of Nervous Collapse. Wild-eyed and disheveled, a boy forced his way into the office of Prin-cipal Housh at the High School yesreday.

"I want to home; I'm sick; I want to be excused." he said, and with that feil in a dead faint.

Mr. Housh recognised him as Jesse Land, a hard-working student in the Latin course, and immediately rang for a carriage to take him home. He had been missing since Tuesday.

That night he went home in a state of nervous excitement; threw down his books with an air of disgust, saying that the teacher had refused to let him take up more Latin because he was aiready studying too hard.

He started in the evening for the home of a friend, and was not heard of again until yesterday afternoon. The boy is still in a state of semi-unconsciousness; his family has not been able to find out where he wandered. His appearance suggests a hard experience. The soles of his shoes are worn through, his clothes torn and solied. He apparently had not eaten since leaving home.

Yaqui River.

The deal is the largest of its kind The deal is the largest of its kind that has been carried to completion here in some time. The price paid is said upon good authority to have been in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

The properties purchased are La Dura group of mines at La Dura, near the head of the Yaqui River, one of the telestate to purchase the control of the said of t the head of the Yaqui River, one of the richest properties in one of the richest mining sections in the world, and the Yast undeveloped coalfields at Pilares. The deal was negotiated by Richardson Brothers of this city, who own big interests in the country to be traversed by the railroad which will be built from the Arizona line southwest through the great mining region of the Sierra Madre of Sonora and down the Yaqui River Valley to Guaymas to unite with the Sonora Railroad and with the extenora Railroad and with the exten-which is to run from that point th through Singloa to Guadalajara, ROUTE OF RAILROAD.

ROUTE OF RAILROAD.

The railroad concession through the Yaqui River region was granted to the Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific Railroad, the forty-two mile line owned by the Harriman interests, running from the international line at Maco to the great copper camp at Cananea. Epes Randolph is president of this and will probably be at the head of the new system, which despite its title, will not, so far as present advices go, be in any sense a continuation of the present line, but will strike the international line at San Bernardino, a little town on the Arisona border some distance from Naco.

pected to be a most important event in Sonora.

Fuel is the crying need of the entire republic, and nowhere is this truer than on the Pacific Coast, where the existing railroads are largely using wood for lack of better fuel; the supply of this is none too great. Coal has only been developed in limited quantities in a few places and the quality of such is indifferent. The black diamonds of Pilares are said to be of a much better class. With a cheap fuel supply developed at home, the manufacturing industries of Sonora may have a chance to develop as they should.

Some twenty miles from Pilares are La Barranca coalfields which have been owned by the Southern Pacific for some time past. The railroad will tap both properties.

La Dura Company's property comprises La Dura, Prieta, La Gioria, Fortuna, California and several other mines and claims. Silver and copper are the products in which they excel.

ESPEE IN MEXICO.

At present the Espee's interests in Sonora comprise the Sonora road, or "burro line" as it is called, from Nogales to Guaymas and the Cananca road, a total mileage of 265. If the lines now planned are all built this will be tripled or quadrupled and Harriman will become one of the greatest railroad magnates of Mexico as well as of the United States. The woman grafter has broken out in a new-old way and reaped a rich harvest, at the expense of poor girls who cannot afford to be robbed. She has duped youing women seeking service as domestics, and made away with their hard-earned money.

Last night one of the victims reported the case to the police department, and an investigation has shown that the woman making the report was but one of thirty, and possibly more, victims of an artful pretender whose only idea was to get their money.

Tuesday there appeared in the newspapers a simple "liner" announcement: "Wanted-Girl for housework. Wages 155. Call Tuesday and Wednesday, No. 344 Mayle avenue."

One of the persons reading this "ad." was a young woman who had just come from Texas and wanted to secure work in a hogne. The big machines are on the way from the East and are expected here in a few days.

Experiments already made with engines of the type that is to be used have demonstrate1, it is said, that at least ten cars can be added to the maximum that is hauled by the locognitives now in service, the trains now being run consisting of about forty-figures are expected to haul fifty-five loads, or from 1800 to 2000 tons.

The present freight engines by no means are pigmies, their weight being 146,000 pounds, but the new consolidateds have a weight of 195,000 pounds, with a prodigious pulling power.

With fewer and larger trains, there not only will be a considerable saving in operating expenses, but it is expected that the movement of freight will be accelerated. It is planned to send the heavy freight trains through from Loa Angeles to El Paso without cutting them in two to 'double' a hill that the ordinary engine could not climb with the present tonnage, and in numerous other ways the big engines are expected to prove their superiority.

"EMERGENCIES" DO NOT LOOK GOOD TO COUNCILMEN.

Back, Putting it "up to" City At-

"I do not relish the position in which I have been placed by the act of the Civil Service Commission, in declining to certify to demands for emergency men. But it is a condition which was brought about by the adoption of the now charter amendments. I argued against such an arrangement regarding emergency laborers while a member of the Charter Revision Committee. I went before the Municipal League, which had advocated the change, and urged them to reconsider their action. I refused as a member of the Revision Committee to sign the report embodying the clause affecting laborers. I knew that it would bring about the condition which now exists.

"I have asked the Council for only what I must have, not regular men, but those needed in emergencies. If the Council and the Civil Service Commission can make some other arrangement I will be happy to comply with the changed conditions. I am now being censured for doing what I protested against being forced to do during the three months that the charter amendments were under discussion.

"It is too much like forcing something down a man's throat and then condemning him because he has eaten it."

Mr. Marnham has secured an increase in majories since January 1.

City Electrician Manahan's "emergency" salary ordinance proved to be the straw that broke the camel's back of Councilmanic patience and forbearance. It is tack to the Finahes Commistion that the council of the council.

There they will remain until the City Attorney and the Civil Service Commission devise some plan by which the wheels of municipal government can be kept in motion without padding up the real elevations of department salary ordinances until they resemble a Delincator fashion plate during the elding days of the last century.

Manahan's ordinance, carrying with it a monthly expenditure of 1874.59 greater than the one in effect prior to January 9 of the present year, is a part of the "emergency" budget that in cludes the 180,000 salary ordinance for the engineer's department.

Mr. Manahan says that his regular force hasn't increased in proportion to the work that is now required of his department. The emergency part he blames on the Civil Service Commission.

ARTI-SALOON ELECTION.

After waiting for two days for a protest that never came, Mayor McAleer yesterday afternoon signed the ordinance providing for a special election which is to decide the fate of the open bar.

Friday, June 2. Is the date of the open bar.

Friday, June 2. Is the date of the crucial test. About 4000 newcomers to the city, who registered during the last two weeks, hoping to help decide the saloon question, will not be permitted to vote. They failed to get entered in the Great Register forty days before the date of the special election. By advancing the date of the election fifteen days these registrations would be legalized, but the leaders in both camps are eager for the final verdict. Both sides, apparently, fear delay more than the loss of a few thousand votes—possibly because the lost ballots would be those of newcomers, in whom neither side has much confidence.

At the last municipal election 27,292 votes were cast. Politicians at the City Hall figure that not more than 29,000 votes will be cast in the special election. If the 5400 signers of the anti-saloon petition each votes as he signed, and takes a friend with him to the polls who will vote with him to the polls who will vote with him then the chances are that the "antis" will win.

But there are known to be hundreds of names on the petition—that were placed there for policy's sake. Many of the signers have already been to the saloon headquarters to make themselves right with the "wets."

Odds of two to one are offered on the street that the ordinance proposed by the "antis", will be beaten, and there are few takers.

COMMISSION CANCELS PERMIT morning revoked the permit for the miniature raliway now in operation in Eastlake Park. R. A. Todd, attorney, for the raliway company, which consists of one man, a cripple, yesterday afternoon asserted that if the commission does not give that permit back he will bring an injunction suit to bar all other amusements from the parks. Frequent protests have been made to the Park Commissioners that the little park raliway is a nuisance. The raliroad compaity insists that these protests were instigated by the holders of other concessions in the park; that they are jealous because the raliroad does a rushing, tooting business. But the Park Commissioners think that the complaints are well founded. The raliway has been in operation about eighteen months.

The Compania Minera Beneficiadora de Metales de Choix. carrying on business at Choix, Sinaloa, Mex., has begun suit in the Superior Court against the Western Mining and Development Company to recover $10,000 as damages which are alleged to have accrued by reason of the defendant not having lived up to the terms of a contract. It is alleged that at on April 7, 1903, the plaintiff owned a mining claim known as "Los Platines" in the mining district Del Fuerte, and upon which there was an indebtedness of $8500 held by Dudley Snyder. On that date a contract was entered into by both corporations under which the defendant was given a six months option and right to work the mine, it was agreed that the defendant was to organise a corporation to acquire the property, and that all organise the property, and that the defendant, furthermore, was to pay $1000 a month Mexican money toward paying off the Snyder debt. Clark Griffith Says Any Club Which Can Average Three Runs to Game Can Win Pennant—New Deal Hoped for This Winter—Big

The amateurs of Los Angeles who were thinking of buying Sally VII for the purpose of lifting the Lipton Chalenge Cup at San Diego will postpone Loyal lovers of the National Game, particularly American League fans have raised a loud roar over the decadence of batting this year owing to the general mastery of the "spit bail" by pitchers, and the enforcement of the "foul strike" rule.

All over the country, the same story of few-hit games has been told until as good a judge as Clark Griffith, manager of the New York Highlanders has put himself on record to the effect that any club which can average three runs to the game will win a pennant in its league.

That the fans like to see hitting and what it begets—scoring—has long been recognized and the tendency to perfect the game until one to nothing scores rule has been viewed with considerable alarm by the best posted managers of baseball.

The "foul strike" was bad enough, fans say, but the addition of the "spit bail" has made .275 batsmen sluggers. Especially are the long hitters hindered by it. The only men who are able to connect at all with the freak delivery are those who stand in the front of the batter's box and chop at the ball before it breaks.

Legislation of some sort will be forced this winter, and next season fans may hope to see a return to the good old days of ball—basting and fence—break-ing drives.

Frank Selee is thinking seriously of Jacksonville. Florida, as training place for the Chicago Nationals next sering. The Philadelphia Nationals are playing first division ball this year and bld fair to make a showing if they keep up the galt, though no one counts them a pennant possibility. New York apparently having a mortgage on first place.

"Too much 'spit ball' has put Ches-bro's wing under the weather a large part of the season thus far and the statement made by some of the twirlers relative to that snap delivery hurting the arm sems to be borne out by the big New Yorker's case.

The Boston Nationals were sold for $200,000-just half what the establishment was conceded to be worth.

LONDON, May 11.—In the House of Commons today, Premier Balfour said that, having regard for the changes in the sea power of other nations, a redistribution of the fleet and the army was desirable for colonial defense and the Committee on Defense of the Admiralty has decided that the fleet and the army should be concentrated in the center of the empire, from which they could be distributed as necessity arose. An invasion of India has been the An invasion of India has been the dream of many military leaders. The progress of Russia toward the Afghanistan frontier and the concentration of strategic railroads compelled the government to consider with all seriousness what its great military neighbors could do. No surprise was possible in an invasion of India. Any collision of magnitude between the two powers must depend upon the rapidity of rail-road construction. Gen. Lord Kitche-ner's view was that, in addition to the ordinary drafts, light infantry divisions and other corresponding arms should be available for the defense of India in the first year of a war.

If Great Britain permitted the slow absorption of Afghanistan in a way imilar to that in which the Central similar to that in which the Central Asian States had been absorbed and if Russia's strategic railroads were allowed to creep closer and closer to the frontier. Great Britain would ultimately pay for her supineness by having to keep on foot on army far larger than could be contemplated with equanimity and she would be faced with the greatest military problems which had ever confronted the British government.

Mr. Balfour remarked that development of Russia toward India has from time to time caused great alarm. Great Britain had in vain, by diplomatic means, endeavored to prevent Russia's expansion, which must now be taken as an accepted fact.

Although the invasion of India was much talked of by Russian officers, he did not believe that it formed any part of the scheme of the Russian government.

Duel by Avalanche.

Duel by Avalanche.

Two young Italians, named Guetta and Sorato, both in their teens, and living in a little village near Bellinzona, fell in love with the same girl, who is said to have liked both suitors equally well.

The young men, after many serious quarrels, decided on a very original plan to settle the dispute. Informing their parents that they were going on an excursion to the mountains, they set out for the Splugen Pass, which is notorious for its avalanches for this time of year.

Choosing the most exposed slope, they agreed that each should stand for two hours every day (between 9 and 11 a.m., the most dangerous time.) in the path of the avalanche and allow fate to decide their destiny.

For three mornings these conditions were carried out, but nothing serious happened, though several avalanches came down the slope, but not near the foolhardy youths.

On the fourth day an enormous avalanche passed near Guetta, who was knocked down by the rush of air, but not hurt.

The President's conservatism can be tasted. His only serious danger lies in his temptation to contemplate his own image in the pool of public sentiment too much. If he yields to this temptation he will wea'ten his influence and blight his fame. He is an excellent talker and enjoys public appearance; but a President may appear in public somewhat too much, and the force of his admonitions may be lost with iteration.—[New York Mail.]

Plain Clothes Men. Plain Clethes Men.

In a small South American State, which had recently undergone a change of administration, the new potentate summoned an artist and ordered new designs for all the official uniforms.

"I wish showy costumes—very showy," he said, "for the people are impressed by them. I have here some sketches that I myself have made. Look them over and be guided by these ideas as far as possible."

The artist examined the sketches carefully.

arefully the said, turning the pages, "is evidently for the navy and this for the army: but, if you please, what is this—a long plume on a three-cornered hat, yellow dress coat, trimmed with purple, and—"
"That," replied the Chief of State, gravely, "is for the secret police."—

A Few Palindromes.

"It is a fascinating occupation," said a philologist, "to search the language for palindromes. A palindrome is a word that reads the same backing ward as forward. Rotator, for instance, is a palindrome. Several hundred of these strange words are tabulated, and new ones are continually turning up in the English tongue. If you can find one send it to the Palindrome Society of New York.

"I can rattle off extempore a chaen or more palindromes. Thus:

"Bab, refer, Jb, Anna, tot, bob, peep, civic, toot, dad, madam, deed, pup, deified, sees, dewed, tat, did, shaha, eve, reviver, ewe, rotator, gos, pop, gis, gas, redder, level, noon, Otto sexes." [Philadelphia Bulletin.

C. E. Rumsey, president of the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the visitors to the city, and introduced C. O. Whittemore of the Sait Lake Railroad as toastmaster. Responses to toasts were made by F. H. Harris, secretary of the Sait Lake Commercial Club: F. J. Hewlett, president of the Sait Lake City Council: Senator-Bamberger and ex-Gov. Wells.

At the closs of the speechmaking carriages were in walting to take the visitors for a drive down the valley. Part of the company went by trolley and part in carriage and tallyhos, and on the return they changed places in order that a different route might be taken each way. The visitors departed at 4:51 o'clock for Los Angeles. They expressed themselves as delighted with their entertainment, and with Riverside. They found the Sherman Institute and its orderly-appearing Indian boys and girls particularly interesting.

should be written in letters of gold. He is the man who increased the corn crop of the United States. He did his part before the corn was planted by teaching farmers how to select the best seed. The improvident farmer had been selecting his seed haphazard. He planted average seed and got a belowthe-average crop. The crop will never be better than the seed; usually not so good.

In advertising the same holds true. Indifferent mediums produce indifferent results.

Making two blades of grass grow where but one grew before, producing one hundred bushels of corn where fifty bushels grew before, using one good medium to create greater advertising successes than a dozen meager ones -all these things are in the same category.

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL with its more than a million circulation, will do the work of a dozen ordinary mediums and save a great deal of expense. THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY

Local Citrus Movements.

NEW YORK, May 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fancy California oranges are scarce and firm. At auction sales prices range high. A good proportion of the fruit arriving shows the effect of age, but anything which is of good quality brings high prices. So far the Santa Fé washout has not taused the expected famine, but dealers are fearful that it will, and buy freely. There is good movement in all sizes and varieties. Jobbers are doing good business, and retailers report an active trade in all parts of the city.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fear of a famine of California oranges because of a washout in the West has made the market stronger and more active, with an advance of 10 to 20 cents a box on fancy Washington naveis. All others held their own, despite free offerings and more or less indications of age. Wholesalers are buying freely because of possible shortage. In view of the sudden improvement in the market, both selling agencies are offering everything they have in hand. Retailers are doing good business, with prices held steady on all grades.

NEW YORK CITY, May II.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Twenty-one care sold at auction today. Market is strong. Weather is favorable.

GIVES THANKS TO CUTICURA

Captain W. S. Graham, 1321 Roff St., Wheeling, W. Va., writing under date of June 14, 'o., says: "I am so grateful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Scap and Ointment to me. I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my akin now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them all that Cuticura Scap and Cuticura Ointment did it."

Not content with preaching Boyle Heights since his early manhoed, "Uncle Billy" Workman has carved from his former broad acreage, La Paloma Heights Addition. Successful was Mr. Workman in disposing of La Paloma Heights tract, that adjoins the addition of the same name, and this popularity in Boyle Heights property caused this present venture to come on the market. This new tract lies between Concord and Lorena streets and extends from First to Fourth streets. Transportation is by the Traction line, and Mr. Workman declares that the business heart of Los Angeles can be reached from the tract in about twelve minutes.

Reyle Heights was named in honor of Andrew A. Boyle, who purchased a winiyard and came to live on the bluff labe in 1858. At that time vineyards in Los Angeles were of great value, bringing as high as $3000 an acre for old vileyards. Orapes were in great demand on account of the northern part of the State being entirely devoted to mining, and before any grapes were saised in the north, they were shipped from Los Angeles by steamer. The grapes were -picked and packed in boses with sawdust, and upon arriving in San Francisco, were always fresh and were sold readily from 15 to 20 cents a pound, or $300 a ton. ANSWER: 1. "Qualitative Chemical Analysis, Thorpe and Muir." advises following: "Five or ten grains of the finely powdered mineral are shaken with alcoholic tincture of iodine, prepared by dissolving one half an ounce of iodine and one-fourth of an ounce of iodide of potassium in one pint of rectified spirit (8 per cent. alcohol is better.) The insoluble matter is allowed to settle, a piece of Swedish filter paper is dipped into the solution and incinerated after drying. If the ash be purple in color, gold is present. To confirm the presence of gold, treat the ash with a few drops of aqua regia; (one ounce of nitric acid to three of hydrochloris acid. mixed, makes metallurgical, aqua regia,) evaporate to dryness at a gentle heat, and dissolved in the solution is now prepared by adding ferric chloride (iron chloride) to stannous chloride (proto-chloride of tin) until a permanent yellow color is produced. This solution is diluted, a glass rod is dipped into it, then into the gold solution. A bluish purple streak in the track of the rod confirms the presence of gold." Forty grains of lodine and sixty grains of lodide of potassium, dissolved in three fluid ounces of water, makes a better liquid, for the purpose indicated, than the alcoholic tincture.

Percy Shoemaker, whose property is situated near the Amalgamated, west of the city, is building a 35,000-barrel tank for storage purposes.

The Amalgamated has built quite a large tankage on its lands. No attempt has been made to construct earthen reservoirs, such as are used at Kern River, the conditions not being favorable.

Mexican government three years ago to be allowed to import California oil for fuel purposes. On the former occasion the request was promptly rejected. At concession has just been obtained for extending the line to Guadalajara and the company, that has always been hard-pushed for fuel, probably hopes to get the desired privallege to aid in rushing the extension. Wood has been used mostly in locomotives and the supply is limited.

The Ebano oil, for which the Mexican Central is expected to contract, is hardly available owing to the long haul necessary. This would come to about 1600 miles, mostly over the Mexican Central, first to El Paso, from which point it would have to go through the United States in bond to Nogales in order to be used. The building of the line to Guadalajara would of course give direct communication with other parts of Mexico and with the oil fields on the Guif.

For years the Sonora road's management has encouraged prospecting for oil in the State and examined a few supposed prospects in the hope of thus solving the fuel problem, but none of them were sufficiently promising to justify any work being attempted. It has always been the fixed policy of the Mexican government to exclude American oil by tariff in order to encourage development at home.

The defense today covered much ground. D. T. Lane, Edward Clark, Timothy Spellacy, John Conley and D. R. Evinger showed that enough assessment work has been done since January 1, 1901, to hold the section for the defendant locators.

Testimony was introduced to prove that no guards or force were used to hold the section after July, 1801, and that if the Cumningham interest had desired to do assessment work that year it could have. O. L. Emory and A. A. Hanks, expert chemists from San Francisco, declared that the gypsum was not claims of the plaintiffs are not worth much. They said the gypsum was not good for making cement. These theories he expounded by means of tables and diagrams. Among every thousand men the color of the eyes is divided as follows: Blue. 381; green, 312; hazel, 127, and brown, 94. The eyes of women are generally darker, only 236 of them in every thousand having blue ones. If these blue-eyed people married at random, the result would be that they would mate at the rate of 104 per 1000; but he had discovered that the actual number of marriages per 1000 of blue-eyed persons was 140, or 36 above the random average, thus proving that the blue-eyed man and the blue-eyed woman are unconsciously attracted toward each other. In the same way, men with greenish gray or hazel eyes tend to marry women with eyes of like color. "One could hardly imaging a man choosing a wife by measuring her from forefinger to forefinger," said the professor; yet his diagrams demonstrated that as the span of one increased so did that of the other.—[New York Tribune.

It is thought now the town's bonds will be tied up for a long time.

The flown authorities have measures on foot in retaliation, it is stated. One of the things they may do is to shut off the arc lights furnished by the old company, thus making a saving of $125 per month to the city. This amount is to go toward hiring lawyers to fight the restraining sait. Another reprisal talked of is to cease using water upon the streets and oil them all. Still another way suggested of getting even is to cut down the electric-light rates und also the rates for furnishing gas to consumers, which latter plant is also owned and controlled by the water company. The fight between the town and the water company so in earness and it promises to be a bitter one.

During the past few months, wholes sale thefts have been made of goods from the big store of the Greene Copper Company at Cananea. The Mexican officials threw the guilt upon three young American women, employes of the store, the disgrace being most public. It has just been discovered that the young women are guiltless and they have been brought back to their former positions with the amplest apologies. The real culprits were a Mexican man and woman, named Hermanos. Both have been taken into custody.

Gen. A. R. Chaffee, during a brief stay at Tucson, confirmed the report that Fort Grant is to be abandoned in the near future. The troops now at the post are to be transferred to Fort Apache. Though the general said nothing on the subject, there is a strong probability that a new military post will be established at Benson, east of Tucson. Benson is a point of remarkable strategic advantages, on the main line of the Southern Pacific and with two railway connections into Mexico, beside a prospect for a northern connection via the new Phoenix and Eastern road.

FLURRY AT ELECTION.

Futile Attempt at Annual Meeting of Municipal League to Change Executive Committee.

the eight names reported by the Nominating Committee.

After a bewildering parliamentary tangle that President H. C. Witmer had some difficulty in straightening, it was found that no additions could be made to the list, and the new names were submitted to the members present. When the ballots were counted the regular nominees were declared elected. They received votes ranging from 33 to 44, while the nominees on the ticket presented by Mr. Hampton said his objects in presenting the additional names were to give the Los Angeles Realty Board representation and to infuse new blood into the Executive Committee.

Officers of the league were reflected as follows: President, H. C. Witmer; first vice-president, R. W. Burnham; second vice-president, P. F. B. Kellogg; third vice-president, Eugene Germain; fourth vice-president, Eugene Germain; fourth vice-president, J. M. Schneider; treasurer, M. H. Newmark; secretary, C. D. "About 10 o'clock last night I was on my way home and passed two on my way home and passed two well-dressed young men, strangers, whose actions aroused my suspicions. They appeared to be sixing up the building and looking in the alleys. I watched them for quite a while, and even thought of reporting their actions to the police. Both were young, aged about 20, and evidently Americans. Both were of dark complexion. One was about 5 feet 11 inches tail, and the other 5 feet 6 inches. PLAYA DEL REY, May 11.—The skymobile cut loose here this morning and shot straight toward the home of the stars. Mark Knabenshue was so heavy the big bag refused to carry thim. W. Tromley therefore had to go it alone. After getting almost a mile in the air, the ballon was seen to be drifting toward Manils. The engine had gone wrong. When this was righted, the ship cut a figure eight in the sky and headed for Los Angeles, but the rudder got out of gear and the nearest the city was reached was when the big thing soured over Harvard and Ascot. The propeller didn't behave well and it was not possible to hover over Los Angeles as had been intended.

The best Tromley could do was to sail over toward Compton and pick out a soft spot in a barley field on which to alight. This be did successfully. The trial trip demonstrated the fact that the present propeller is not capable of developing much speed, while the mechanism of the craft is too delicate. Tromley was in the air about twe hours, and when he struck the earth he was about as near frozen as a man ever gets in Southern California. AIRSHIP'S DEVIOUS TRIP.

DETERMINED TO DIE.

saved, but Says She Will Yet Commit Suicide.

"I hope I'll die; I want rest, rest, rest. If you doctors save me now, I'll kill myself later on," waited Mrs. Net-tie Gordon of No. 414 South Hill street in the Receiving Hospital last night.

Mrs. Gordon had swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid in an effort to end her life. Timely discovery of her condition by immates of the lodging-house where she resided, and quick work on the part of Police Surgeons Quint and Bonynge saved her from the grave.

when sent to the hospital, Mrs. Gordon fought fiercely to prevent the insertion of the tube through her teeth, and the surgeons were compelled to bry her mouth open.

She has been ill several months and ser domestic life is said to have been inhappy. Her husband is William Jordon, a carpenter. Yesterday afterioon Mrs. Gordon purchased a bottle of sarbolic acid and retired to her room, the swallowed enough of the fluid to surn her throat and intestines fearully. If she should survive she will ever recover the full use of her hroat, as stricture threatens.

CATALINA ISLAND.

JEWFISH "CAUGHT" ON LAND. AVALON, May 11.—California has no monopoly on fish lines. If old Ananias hasn't turned Theosophist and become incarnated into a rabbit or a sandab he will kick the tail-board out of his command his the nalls the sandab coffin and bite the nails in two when he learns how he has been outdone by a Denver liar. H. H. Hake (not Fake, as one might mistaken) suppose) proprietor of a Denver hotel, recently visited Catalina in search of eea monsters, but he caught no jewfish while here. but he caught no jewfish while here. That feat was reserved until his return to Los Angeles, when he discovered a stuffed Jewfish beside which he posed in the guise of a fisherman—and the camera did the rest. a woolly story to match, recounting his ferce combat with the 260 pound monster of the deep was reproduced with great celat and glaring head lines in the Denver News of the 3rd inst. and Hake's heart beat happily.

There is one statement in the little story which the boatmen resent. When asked why he did not have his big fish mounted, he is quoted as saying: "It was impossible, owing to the fact that when one hires a boat at Catalina it is understood that the boatman is entitled to the catch!"

The Catalina boatmen wish to disclaim any ownership of any catches. Any angler here may have as many fish mounted as he may choose, if he can catch them and has the price. Mr. Hake might have had some difficulty in carrying away the fish he caught in his picture—but not here.

Information as to Sale of Lots in Clark's Las Vegas Townsite, Las Vegas, Nev.

Owing to the great number of applications that have been received for the various lots in this townsite, and the impracticability of deciding as between applicants for the same lots, it has been decided in fairness to all, to conduct an auction sale of these lots at Las Vegas, commencing at noon on May 15, 1905.

A special rate of $16.00 from Los Angeles and $20.00 from Salt Lake City, for the round trip, will be made along the line of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad to Las Vegas. Tickets will be sold on the 13th and the 14th and return portion must be used before the 18th. Purchasers of lots will receive as a rebate the amount paid for railroad fare to Las Vegas.

A map showing the lots with scale of prices can be seen at Room 507 Pacific Electric Building. Los Angeles, Cal., at Houston Real Estate and Investment Co's, office in Salt Lake City and at the office of the Las Vegas Land and Water Company at Las Vegas.

The bidding will be as to choice of lots at the following scale of prices: From $150.00 to $750.00 for corner lots and from $100.00 to $500.00 for inside lots. All streets are 80 feet wide with alleys 20 feet wide running through the center of each block.

Terms of sale: Twenty-five per cent, down and balance on execution and delivery of deed by the Company within sixty days thereafter. The sale of intoxicating liquors will be prohibited, excepting on blocks 16 and 17.

Further information and particulars can be obtained from Mr. F. A. Waters, Room 507 Pacific Electric Bldg., Los Angeles, or at the office of the Company at Las Vegas, or from W. E. Vigus at the office of Houston Real Estate & Investment Co. at Salt Lake City.

PIPE DREAM, PROBABLY.

PIPE DREAM, PROBABLY.

Frank McAllister, whose home is in Garvanza, either had a thrilling experience with a highwayman last night and proved himself to be a man of nerve or he toyed carelessly with the truth, i.e., prevaricated. According to his story he was attacked by a highwayman at Estrella avenue and Washington street and ordered to throw up his hands. The highwayman was masked and armed with a big revolver, from which he had not flied the sight. McAllister tried to seize the robber's artillery, and at the same timedd rew his pipe—it had gone out—

SOLVED THE "MYSTERY."

Dominick Oquitto, an Italian fruit vender, whose place of business is at No. 620 South Spring street, has not been seen about his usual haunts since Sunday. This gave rise to a scare story to the effect that he had been driven out of the city and possibly murdered by the dreaded Italian mafia. The case was not reported to the police, but they, through curiosity, took cognizance of it. They soon cleared the "mystery." They were informed that Oquitto had quitted his place of business because papers in attachment proceedings were about to be served upon him. A constable was the only "mafia" representative whom he feared.

Subject to Arrest.

Forbes Robertson keeps some old friends in his native Scotland who have the shrewdness and a little of the queerness of their kind. Most of them know the actor better off the stage than on it, and when one of them came up to London Robertson took him to one of the rehearsals of "Othello," which he was then preparing. The Scot seldom went to the theater, and never had he been at such close quarters with the stage as he was now, sitting in a box. A player in the cast had an abiding fath that Snakespeare should be acted on a pedestal, as it were. He mounted, he strode, he sawed the air. The old Scot watched him intently.

Then, in one of the pauses, he said to his host: "Is that a vairy deestinguished actor, Mr. Robertson?"

"He is," Robertson explained.

"And do you pay him vairy large wages?" His salary was high, Robertson admitted.

"Mon, mon," retorted the guest, "It I shook my arms and tossed my legs like that in the High street the constable would have me up in twa seconds."—[Cleveland Leader.

1651-1654, English ships are said to have Before You Buy a Lot taken 1700 prizes, worth $30,000,000. In 1657 the Spanjards loaded British sail-"He is," Robertson explained.

Old Time Prize Money.

Sea battles at the present time do not result in such great rewards of prize money as formerly. English sallors in times past have brought great fortunes home after their successful cruises. In the war with Holland,
